

LATINOS IN HERITAGE
CONSERVATION

WHO WE ARE

Founded in 2014, LHC is the leading non-profit organization for the preservation of Latinx places, stories, and cultural heritage in the United States. We are a diverse network of intergenerational advocates conserving Latinx sites and living cultures in the fabric of American society, affirming the value of our history in the hemispheric struggle for social justice.

OUR HISTORY

2014

Latinos in Heritage Conservation (LHC) was co-founded by an intergenerational group of heritage practitioners, advocates, scholars, and students

2015

LHC organized their first solo event in Tucson, Arizona with the support of the Tucson Historic Preservation Foundation and the University of Arizona's Heritage Conservation Program

2016

LHC hosted "Reunión" in Houston, Texas

2016

LHC hosted "Encuentro" in Rhode Island

2020

Latinos in Heritage Conservation incorporated as a nonprofit organization in the state of Arizona

2021
